

Health, Safety & Environmental Instructor Group

The Role

PD Ports is looking for a Health, Safety and Environmental Instructor to join our Learning and Development (L&D) team in Teesport, Middlesbrough. This full-time Instructor role comes with an attractive salary of £43,250. As part of the role, you will be required to travel across all PD Ports sites in the UK.

At PD Ports, we are committed to helping our employees reach their full potential by providing opportunities to develop their knowledge and skills, a key part in our overall People Strategy. We are investing in the growth of our Learning and Development (L&D) team to support the strategy in changing the way we train and develop our people through engaging and innovative learning solutions.

If you were already in this Health, Safety and Environmental Instructor role, here are some of the areas you would have been working on this week:

- Implementing a health, safety and environmental curriculum as part of our training transformation.
- Working as a trusted partner to understand, design and implement learning programmes that support our safety culture.

The Candidate

To apply for this role, you will need to be passionate about developing your own skills and that of our workforce through continual improvement. You'll also be:

- Full of a good customer focus and the ability to embrace change and innovation.
- In possession of the enthusiasm to take on new ways of working.

The following desirable qualifications for this role include a Driving Licence, Level 3 Teaching Qualification, IQA, IOSH or NEBOSH, FAW or Advanced FAW.
